DISCIPLINARY BOARD
WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

In re RAFAL GORSKI, Lawyer (Bar No. 28834).	Proceeding No. 22#00057 FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND HEARING OFFICER'S RECOMMENDATION

The undersigned Hearing Officer held a default hearing by written submission on June 18, 2026 under Rule 10.6 of the Washington Supreme Court's Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC).

FINDINGS OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW REGARDING CHARGED VIOLATIONS

1. The Formal Complaint (Bar File No. 3) charged Rafal Gorski with misconduct as set forth therein. A copy of the Formal Complaint is attached to this decision.

2. Under ELC 10.6(a)(4), the Hearing Officer finds that each of the facts set forth in the Formal Complaint is admitted and established.

3. Under ELC 10.6(a)(4), the Hearing Officer concludes that each of the violations charged in the Formal Complaint is admitted and established as follows:

WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
1325 4th Avenue, Suite 600
Seattle, WA 98101-2539
(206) 727-8207

Count 1: By using and/or converting Mahler and/or similar fees for Respondent's own benefit and/or the benefit of others without entitlement to the funds, Respondent violated RPC 1.15A(b) and RPC 8.4(c).

Count 2: By failing to maintain client and/or third person funds in a trust account, Respondent violated RPC 1.15A(c).

Count 3: By charging and/or collecting an unreasonable fee, Respondent violated RPC 1.5(a).

Count 4: By failing to promptly pay or deliver funds that clients and/or third persons were entitled to receive, Respondent violated RPC 1.15A(f).

Count 5: By providing clients with false, misleading, and/or incomplete disbursal instructions, by misrepresenting the amounts paid for subrogation, attorney fees, and/or the amounts clients were due to receive, and/or by failing to provide clients with an accurate written accounting after distributing funds from the trust account, Respondent violated RPC 1.4, RPC 1.5(c)(3), RPC 1.15A(e), and RPC 8.4(c).

Count 6: By entering sharing legal fees with Raffa, without meeting the requirements of RPC 1.5(e)(1), Respondent violated RPC 1.5(e).

Count 7: By failing to maintain a complete and/or current trust account check register, Respondent violated RPC 1.15A(h)(2) and RPC 1.15B(a)(1).

Count 8: By failing to maintain complete and/or current client ledgers, Respondent violated RPC 1.15A(h)(2) and RPC 1.15B(a)(2).

Count 9: By failing to reconcile the trust account check register to the bank statements and/or the trust account check register to the client ledgers and/or by failing to maintain copies of the reconciliations, Respondent violated RPC 1.15A(h)(6) and RPC 1.15B(a)(8).

FINDINGS OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW REGARDING RECOMMENDED SANCTION

4. Respondent knew or should have known Respondent was not properly handling client property by collecting excess settlement funds and not maintaining appropriate trust account records, as charged in Counts 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, and 9.

5. Respondent acted knowingly in charging and collecting unreasonable fees, providing clients with false, misleading, or inadequate information, and in sharing fees with another lawyer without obtaining the proper consent from clients, as charged in Counts 3, 5, and 6.

WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
1325 4th Avenue, Suite 600
Seattle, WA 98101-2539
(206) 727-8207

6. Respondent's conduct caused injury to Respondent's clients, who were deprived of funds to which they were entitled, whose funds were not safeguarded in trust or properly accounted for, who paid unreasonable fees, and who were not provided with complete or accurate information about the distribution of their funds.

7. Respondent and/or James Raffa collected excess settlement funds as follows:

(a) $7,963.26 from the settlement of DS;

(b) $295.50 from the settlement of CN;

(c) $351.06 from the settlement of SK;

(d) $837.67 from the settlement of HR;

(e) $258.10 from the settlement of DJ; and

(f) $1,112.90 from the settlement of SE.[1]

8. The following standards of the American Bar Association's Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions ("ABA Standards") (1991 ed. & Feb. 1992 Supp.) presumptively apply:

ABA Standard 4.1 applies to Counts 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, and 9:

> 4.1 Failure to Preserve the Client's Property
> Absent aggravating or mitigating circumstances, upon application of the factors set out in 3.0, the following sanctions are generally appropriate in cases involving the failure to preserve client property:
> 4.11 Disbarment is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly converts client property and causes injury or potential injury to a client.
> 4.12 Suspension is generally appropriate when a lawyer knows or should know that he is dealing improperly with client property and causes injury or potential injury to a client.
> 4.13 Reprimand is generally appropriate when a lawyer is negligent in dealing with client property and causes injury or potential injury to a client.
> 4.14 Admonition is generally appropriate when a lawyer is negligent in dealing with client property and causes little or no actual or potential injury to a client.

Respondent knew or should have known Respondent was dealing improperly with client property and Respondent's conduct caused injury to Respondent's clients. The presumptive sanction for Counts 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, and 9 is suspension under ABA Standard 4.12.

ABA Standard 7.0 applies to Counts 3 and 6:

> 7.0 Violations of Duties Owed as a Professional
> Absent aggravating or mitigating circumstances, upon application of the factors set out in Standard 3.0, the following sanctions are generally appropriate in cases involving false or misleading communication about the lawyer or the lawyer's services, improper communication of fields of practice, improper solicitation of professional employment from a prospective client, unreasonable or improper fees, unauthorized practice of law, improper withdrawal from representation, or failure to report professional misconduct.
>
> 7.1 Disbarment is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly engages in conduct that is a violation of a duty owed as a professional with the intent to obtain a benefit for the lawyer or another, and causes serious or potentially serious injury to a client, the public, or the legal system.
>
> 7.2 Suspension is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly engages in conduct that is a violation of a duty owed as a professional and causes injury or potential injury to a client, the public, or the legal system.
>
> 7.3 Reprimand is generally appropriate when a lawyer negligently engages in conduct that is a violation of a duty owed as a professional and causes injury or potential injury to a client, the public, or the legal system.
> 7.4 Admonition is generally appropriate when a lawyer engages in an isolated instance of negligence that is a violation of a duty owed as a professional, and causes little or no actual or potential injury to a client, the public, or the legal system.

Respondent acted knowingly in charging and collecting unreasonable fees and in sharing fees with James Raffa without obtaining proper consent from clients. Respondent's conduct caused injury to Respondent's clients. The presumptive sanction for Counts 3 and 6 is suspension under ABA Standard 7.2.

ABA Standard 4.6 applies to Count 5:

> 4.6 Lack of Candor
> Absent aggravating or mitigating circumstances, upon application of the factors set out in Standard 3.0, the following sanctions are generally appropriate in cases where the lawyer engages in fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation directed toward a client:

WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
1325 4th Avenue, Suite 600
Seattle, WA 98101-2539
(206) 727-8207

4.61 Disbarment is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly deceives a client with the intent to benefit the lawyer or another, and causes serious injury or potential serious injury to a client.

4.62 Suspension is generally appropriate when a lawyer knowingly deceives a client, and causes injury or potential injury to the client.

4.63 Reprimand is generally appropriate when a lawyer negligently fails to provide a client with accurate or complete information, and causes injury or potential injury to the client.

4.64 Admonition is generally appropriate when a lawyer engages in an isolated instance of negligence in failing to provide a client with accurate or complete information, and causes little or no actual or potential injury to the client.

Respondent acted knowingly in providing clients with false, misleading, or inadequate information regarding the handling of their funds and Respondent's conduct caused injury to Respondent's clients. The presumptive sanction for Count 5 is suspension under ABA Standard 4.62.

9. Under In re Disciplinary Proceeding Against Petersen, 120 Wn.2d 833, 854, 846 P.2d 1330 (1993), the "ultimate sanction imposed should at least be consistent with the sanction for the most serious instance of misconduct among a number of violations."

10. The following aggravating factors set forth in Section 9.22 of the ABA Standards apply in this case:

(c) a pattern of misconduct;
(d) multiple offenses;
(i) substantial experience in the practice of law; and
(j) indifference to making restitution.

11. It is an additional aggravating factor that Respondent failed to file an answer to the Formal Complaint as required by ELC 10.5(a).

12. The following mitigating factor set forth in Section 9.32 of the ABA Standards applies to this case:

(a) absence of a prior disciplinary record.

In re RAFAL GORSKI, Lawyer (Bar No. 28834).	Proceeding No. 22#00057 FORMAL COMPLAINT

Under Rule 10.3 of the Washington Supreme Court's Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC), the Office of Disciplinary Counsel (ODC) of the Washington State Bar Association charges the above-named lawyer with acts of misconduct under the Washington Supreme Court's Rules of Professional Conduct (RPC) as set forth below.

ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

1. Respondent Rafal Gorski was admitted to the practice of law in the State of Washington on May 13, 1999.

FACTS REGARDING COUNTS 1 THROUGH 8

2. At all times relevant to this Formal Complaint, Respondent practiced law primarily in the field of bankruptcy.

3. Beginning around 2010, when a bankruptcy client had a personal injury claim, Respondent referred the client to lawyer James Raffa.

4. Respondent and Raffa worked in separate law firms.

5. If Raffa agreed to handle the personal injury case, Respondent advanced the costs and received forty percent (40%) of the total attorney fees.

6. Respondent and Raffa also collected a fee on any amounts waived by third persons for subrogated and/or reimbursement interests and/or contributed by third persons to the client's attorney fees and/or costs. Respondent and/or Raffa commonly referred to these additional fees as Mahler fees (hereinafter referred to as Mahler fees).

7. In some instances, client settlements were deposited into and disbursed from Respondent's trust account. In other instances, client settlements were deposited into and disbursed from Raffa's trust account.

8. Respondent maintained an Interest on Lawyer's Trust Account, ending in 3031, at Wells Fargo Bank for the deposit of client funds.

Client DS

9. On or about May 3, 2011, Respondent and DS entered into a written contingency fee agreement for a personal injury case arising out of a motor vehicle accident.

10. The fee agreement provided for a 33-1/3% fee if the case settled before trial.

11. Respondent referred DS's personal injury claim to Raffa.

12. DS did not enter into an agreement, confirmed in writing, to Respondent's fee-sharing arrangements with Raffa, including the share of fees each lawyer would receive.

13. Respondent did not explain to DS the fee-sharing arrangements with Raffa.

14. DS received time loss and other benefits under an employee benefit plan, Sound Health & Wellness Trust (Sound Health).

15. Under Sound Health's Subrogation Reimbursement Agreement with DS, Sound Health had a right to reimbursement from any recovery obtained by DS.

16. Sound Health informed Respondent that it would agree to an equitable apportionment of Respondent's attorney fees up to a maximum of one-third of its subrogated interest.

17. On or about August 20, 2012, Raffa sent Sound Health a letter, stating that Raffa and Respondent were co-representing DS.

18. On or about October 15, 2014, DS's case settled in mediation for $160,000 plus $1,150 for the mediation fee.

19. On or about October 27, 2014, DS received Disbursal Instructions showing a "breakdown of how settlement funds will be disbursed." The Instructions provided:

a. $53,333 for attorney fees (1/3);

b. $1,042.07 to Respondent for costs;

c. $23,920 to Sound Health;

d. $81,704.81 to DS.

20. On or about November 4, 2014, United Services Automobile Association (USAA) issued a settlement check for $160,000 to Respondent in trust for DS.

21. On or about November 6, 2014, Respondent deposited the settlement check into Respondent's trust account.

22. Respondent made the following disbursements from DS's settlement funds:

a. $36,783.96 to Raffa on or about November 13, 2014;

b. $15,946.53 to Sound Health on or about November 13, 2014;

c. $81,704.81 to DS on or about November 13, 2014;

d. $25,554.70 to Respondent on or about February 7, 2016.

23. On or about November 19, 2014, Raffa sent Sound Health a letter enclosing the $15,946.53 check.

24. The letter stated, in part:

> This amount represents the balance after the one-third (1/3) deduction for attorney's i.e [sic] Mahler fees. Attorney Gorski and this office decided not to deduct a similar pro-rated amount for Sound Health & Wellness Trust's share of the costs in successfully resolving this matter.

25. Respondent disbursed a total of $62,338.66 to Respondent and Raffa for attorney fees and costs, which was $7,963.26 more in fees than the amount disclosed on the Disbursal Instructions.

26. Respondent and Raffa received nearly all the funds contributed by Sound Health toward DS's attorney fees and/or costs.

27. Respondent did not notify DS of Respondent's intent to disburse Mahler and/or similar fees to Respondent and Raffa.

28. Respondent was not entitled to the funds contributed by Sound Health toward DS's attorney fees and/or costs, and/or any portion of the $7,963.26.

29. Raffa was not entitled to the funds contributed by Sound Health toward DS's attorney fees and/or costs, and/or any portion of the $7,963.26.

30. DS was entitled to receive the $7,963.26.

31. Respondent did not explain to DS the concept of Mahler and/or similar fees contributed by an insurer and/or third person.

32. Respondent did not inform DS that Respondent and Raffa kept the funds and/or collected additional fees instead of disbursing them to DS.

33. Respondent did not provide DS with an accurate settlement statement and/or accounting after distributing DS's settlement funds.

34. Respondent did not promptly pay or deliver the $7,963.26 to DS.

35. Respondent's fees were unreasonable.

Client CN

36. On or about December 13, 2011, Respondent and CN entered into a written contingency fee agreement for a personal injury case arising out of a motor vehicle accident.

37. The agreement provided for a 33-1/3% fee if the case settled before trial.

38. Respondent referred CN's personal injury claim to Raffa.

39. CN did not enter into an agreement, confirmed in writing, to Respondent's fee-sharing arrangements with Raffa, including the share of fees each lawyer would receive.

40. In 2014, Raffa sent Group Health and Premera Blue Cross letters, stating that Raffa and Respondent were co-representing CN.

41. On or about March 13, 2015, CN's claim settled for $25,000.

42. On or about March 13, 2015, Farmers Insurance issued a settlement check for $25,000 to Respondent for CN.

43. On or about March 13, 2015, CN and Raffa signed Disbursal Instructions showing a "breakdown of how settlement funds will be disbursed." The Instructions provided:

a. $8,333.33 for attorney fees (1/3);

b. $657.49 to Respondent for costs;

c. $748.74 to Group Health (subrogation for St. Clare Hospital);

d. $947 to bankruptcy trustee (medical lien for NW Emergency Physicians);

e. $204.50 to bankruptcy trustee (medical lien for TRA Medical Imaging);
